Intro: [G] [D7] [G] [D7]

Come [G] all ye [D7] maidens young and [G] fair [G]
And [G] you that are [A7] blooming in your [D7] prime [D7]
[G] Always be-[G7]ware and [C] keep your garden [D7] fair
Let [G] no man [D7] steal away your [G] thyme [G]

For thyme it [D7] is a precious [G] thing [G]
And thyme brings [A7] all things to my [D7] mind [D7]
[G] Thyme with all its [G7] labours, [C] along with all its [D7] joys
[G] Thyme, brings [D7] all things to my [G] mind [G]

Once I [D7] had a bunch of [G] thyme [G]
And thought it never [A7] would de-[D7]cay [D7]
Then [G] came a lusty [G7] sailor, who [C] chanced to pass that [D7] way
And [G] stole my [D7] bunch of thyme a-[G]way [G]

For thyme it [D7] is a precious [G] thing [G]
And thyme brings [A7] all things to my [D7] mind [D7]
[G] Thyme with all its [G7] labours, [C] thyme with all its [D7] joys
[G] Thyme, brings [D7] all things to my [G] mind [G]

The sailor [D7] gave to me a [G] rose [G]
A rose that [A7] never would de-[D7]cay [D7]
He [G] gave it to [G7] me to [C] for to keep me re-[D7]minded
Of [G] when he [D7] stole my thyme a-[G]way [G]

For thyme it [D7] is a precious [G] thing [G]
And thyme brings [A7] all things to my [D7] mind [D7]
[G] Thyme with all its [G7] labours, [C] thyme with all its [D7] joys
[G] Thyme, brings [D7] all things to my [G] mind [G]
