

Mairi's Wedding

Scottish Folk Song John Roderick Bannerman (1934)

English Lyrics – Hugh Robertson

Timing 2 / 4

COUNT 1 2 1 2

INTRO: [C] [C]

CHORUS:

[C] Step we gaily on we go

[F] Heel for heel and [G7] toe for toe

[C] Arm in arm and row on row

[F] All for Mairi's [G7] wedding

[C] Over hillways, up and down

[F] Myrtle green and [G7] bracken brown

[C] Past the shielings through the town

[F] All for the sake of [G7] Mairi

CHORUS

[C] Red her cheeks as rowans are

[F] Bright her eye as [G7] any star

[C] Fairest of them all by far

[F] Is our darlin' [G7] Mairi

CHORUS

[C] Plenty herring, plenty meal

[F] Plenty peat to [G7] fill her creel

[C] Plenty bonnie bairns as well

[F] That's the toast for [G7] Mairi

FINAL CHORUS

[C] Step we gaily on we go

[F] Heel for heel and [G7] toe for toe

[C] Arm and arm and row on row

[F] All for Mairi's [G7] wedding [C]